UNPUBLISHED DECISION ON FEES AND COSTS¹

On April 23, 2014, petitioners filed a Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs. Respondent filed a Stipulation of Fact Concerning Attorneys' Fees and Costs ("Stipulation"). The Court awards the amount to which respondent has not objected.

On January 24, 2007, petitioners, Jed Snyder and Lilia Snyder, filed a petition for compensation on behalf of their minor child, N.S., alleging that N.S. received a diphtheria-tetanus-acellular pertussis ("DTaP") vaccination on March 4,

¹ The E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the parties have 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

2005, and subsequently suffered the onset of a seizure disorder, which petitioner contended was caused by the vaccination.

A decision denying compensation was issued on May 27, 2011. 2011 WL 3022544. The Court of Federal Claims reversed this decision and remanded with instructions to determine an award of damages for petitioner. 102 Fed. Cl. 305 (2011). On January 8, 2013, a decision awarding damages was issued based on the parties' proffer. 2013 WL 391169. However, on January 28, 2014, the Federal Circuit reversed the ruling by the Court of Federal Claims, finding that petitioners were not entitled to compensation under the Vaccine Act. Snyder v. Sec'y of Health and Human Servs., 2014 WL 292399.

Even though compensation was denied, a petitioner who brings a petition in good faith and who has a reasonable basis for the petition may be awarded attorneys' fees and costs. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1). The Court's 2011 Opinion directing compensation be awarded to petitioners justifies a finding of reasonable basis. Respondent does not contend that petitioners failed to satisfy these criteria. Thus, petitioners are eligible for an award of attorneys' fees and costs.

In their Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs, petitioners requested a total of $ 238,073.86 in attorneys' fees and costs, including $178,362.80 in attorneys' fees and $59,711.06 in attorneys' costs. The expenses may be divided into the following phases:

Summary of Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs by Phase
Phase	Attorneys' Fees	Attorneys' Cost
Special Master/Entitlement	$ 108,686.90	$27,841.16
Court of Federal Claims/Motion for Review	$15,719.60	$37.48
Special Master/Damages	$29,493.80	$30,450.39
Federal Circuit/Appeal	$22,091.20	$466.60
Special Master/Attorneys' Fees and Costs	$2,371.30	$915.43
Total Requested Fees and Costs	$178,362.80	$59,711.06

After informal discussions, petitioners amended their request and respondent filed the above-referenced Stipulation, requesting a final award of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $222,338.11. Additionally, petitioners filed a statement of costs in compliance with General Order No. 9, stating that they incurred $463.87 in costs while pursuing this claim. Respondent states that she does not object to a total award in the amount of $ 222,801.98 for attorneys' fees and costs and petitioners' costs.

A status conference to discuss petitioners' Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs was held on May 8, 2014. After reviewing the request and Stipulation, the Court awards the following:

1. A lump sum payment of $222,338.11 in the form of a check payable to petitioner's attorney, Ronald C. Homer, of the law firm Conway, Homer & Chin-Caplan, P.C., and petitioners, Jed Snyder and Lilia Snyder, for attorneys' fees and costs available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e);
2. A lump sum payment of $463.87 in the form of a check payable to petitioners, Jed Snyder and Lilia Snyder.

The Court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.²
